

Personal Care Worker

Home Assist Community Services are looking for a personal care worker to deliver individual and personalised care and resources to consumers, so that they may continue to live the life they choose in their homes. This role will be with our team at Home Assist Community Services.

Home Assist Community Services is a non-profit community based public benevolent institution. It was established in the year 1999 to provide a range of services for older people and people with disabilities in the Queensland Local Government Areas of Bundaberg, Fraser Coast, Gympie, North Burnett and South Burnett.

Required qualities

- Minimum Certificate III in any one of Aged Care, Home and Community Care or Disability
- Current First Aid and CPR Certification
- Current Driver's Licence
- Current National Police Certificate or National Disability Support Scheme Yellow Card
- Proof of Covid-19 vaccinations and Flu Vaccination
- Willingness to travel as required

Desired competencies

- Minimum 1 years' experience in Community Aged Care Setting (within the last 2 years)
- Previous employment experience in the health/aged care, not for profit, community services sector desirable but not essential.
- A proven track record of passion, commitment and reliability in delivering quality client centred care.
- A proven record working with patients/persons in care.

In return, you will receive:

- Excellent salary and benefits
- Career progression opportunities
- A dynamic and unique working environment

If you have the above skills and are looking for an exciting and rewarding career, please send us your application to shelley@homeassist.org.au

We look forward to hearing from you.

Please note that only applicants short listed will be contacted.